

United States Marshal's Office,

EASTERN DISTRICT OF PENNSYLVANIA.

Philadelphia, Sept 29th 1893Col. A. C. Bushnell &
Dear Sir

I heard that about 2500 persons attended the sale yesterday & when I went down in the afternoon there were certainly 1500 persons in & around the house. This large influx of people was unprecedented. I have 14 deputies & watchman on hand.
I am told a few tree bushes were taken the vegetables in the garden were sold to a purchaser.

Yours truly
Alex. R. Folger

U.S. Marshall. Office
Phil. Sept 19. 1893

A. T. Tolesbery.

Relative to Sale
at Henry. S.
Cochran.

NARA RG104, Entry 1, Box 183

[Abstract:] Relative to sale at Henry P. Cochraic's.

United States Marshal's Office,
Eastern District of Pennsylvania.
Philadelphia,
September 29, 1893

Col. Bosbyshell Esq.

Dear Sir

I heard that about 2500 persons attended sale yesterday & when I went down this afternoon there were certainly 1500 persons and around in & around the house. This large influx of people was unprecedented. I have 14 Deputies & watchman on hand I am told a few rose bushes were taken the vegetables within Yard in were sold to a purchaser.

Yours truly,
Alex P. Colesbery